

1230 TWC September Special

1230 Magical Moments

Fashion and Magic may seem strange bedfellows but on this occasion it was, well—magic! Even more thrilling because our very Special Guest and Patron of Ovacome, Jenny Agutter treated us to a presentation of "Fashion in the Film Industry". A snapshot of some of the dress styles Jenny had worn through her expansive film career from a young girl to the current day and the stories behind them.

Julia was thrilled to win the floral bouquet donated by Balloon Baboon, as were all our raffle prize winners, thanks to the generosity of those businesses you can see to the right.

Your help

Noeline Young, Chair of Ovacome Trustees

spoke about the work of Ovacome and the people they help.

Ovacome's recent loss of funding puts their invaluable research and support of those affected by ovarian cancer in serious jeopardy. 1230 TWC is asking for your help on their be-

Overheard.....

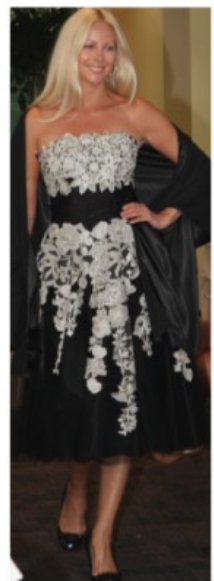

"He doesn't look like a magician". Certainly Associate of the Inner Magic Circle Matthew Duggan doesn't wear a pointed hat and black cloak with stars on but he bewitched us all nevertheless! With the sunshine streaming through the windows of the 37th floor of Canary Wharf Tower there was plenty of light to try and spot the secrets of Matthew's close-up magic, or so we thought! Further comments were—Absolutely brilliant! Charming! How did he do that?!!

half.

Are you looking for a worthwhile cause to support? Maybe you already have a "favourite" charity but in true networking style you know someone that you could forward this newsletter to. Ovacome desperately needs your help. There are many ways in which we can all help Ovacome – by raising awareness eg letting people know about Ovacome, raising funds by holding an event, asking your Doctor to have the Ovacome newsletter in the waiting room, having an Ovacome representative speak at your events.... We're sure you can think of many more. Thank you

High Society

To the tunes of Cole Porter's "High Society", wearing the beautiful Frank Usher Fashions the stunning models did not disappoint as they sashayed the catwalk.

Our thanks particularly to the models and everyone present for their patience when the van carrying the outfits and lovely June Poster became stuck in the City traffic, which threw the best laid plans out of the window!

Well Done 1230 for organising the Magical Moments event - it was an incredible evening!
