Calendar Girls!

1230 The Women's Company Wilts Rocks!

Inspired 1230 The Women's Company member Lis McDermott Photography loves taking pictures of people. By photographing 1230 TWC business women in beautiful dresses in a beautiful setting, Lis has created this wonderful opportunity to raise funds for Business Against Poverty with the production of a stunning 2011 calendar.

Working with Lis to make this innovative fund-raising idea such a success and generously giving their time for free, are the 1230 TWC Wiltshire Members, Bowood Hotel, Dress Couture of Marlborough, Kate Kelvin Make up and Jackie Groundsell, founder of 1230 TWC.

Alex Morgan, Host of the Swindon, Malmesbury and Bristol 1230 TWC groups, has known and worked with the Robin Hood Ministries for a number of years, during which time she has been deeply touched by the work they do. "When I heard about the Business Against Poverty Entrepreneur competition, I realised it was the ideal match for Lis's project."

Wish us luck and if you'd like to attend the Business Against Poverty Black & White Ball on Saturday 6 November, at Bailbrook House Hotel, Bath please email sara@robinhoodministries.org

For the past year 1230 TWC Wiltshire Member Elaine Godley has been charting her journey with breast cancer, radical surgery and recovery. The proceeds from the resulting book will go to Business Against Poverty and the Encephalitis Association.

And the title of this book? "Calendar Girl!" Watch this space for release date

And What else?

Just last week, I've had the pleasure of speaking at NatWest Bank Knightsbridge to the business women of the Lithuanian Chamber of Commerce and to have listened to actress Jane Asher share her business experiences at the Financial Mail Women's Forum

I was also lucky enough to be interviewed and filmed by vivacious Kubi Springer of Sisterhood TV as part of her forthcoming book.

Watch this space for news of the special invitation book launch at 1230 TWC Mayfair on 21 October and Kubi's contributions to 1230 TWC Mayfair.

JoJo Dye 1230 TWC Esher celebrated her birthday this month—thank you JoJo for the bubbly and special 1230 cakes!

2010 has absolutely just zipped along here at 1230 TWC with lots of exciting developments; you'll probably have noticed too that Penny's not been around. Penny's absolutely fine and sends everyone her love but is now so extremely busy with her new house build that she has retired from 1230 The Women's Company. We understand that moving day is mid-February 2011 and the Grand Design broadcast is anticipated for mid-Summer. I'm sure we can guarantee more viewers for GD then! I will keep you posted!
